LAWS OF NEPAL · PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION

Civil Service Act, 2049 (1993)

Constitution of Services, Merit Recruitment, Promotion, and Conduct

Public Administration Legal Series

Consolidated Study Reference · 4 Pages

CHAPTERS 1–2 · STRUCTURE OF SERVICES

Constitution and Classification of Civil Services

Enacted to make the Civil Service more competent, vigorous, service-oriented, and responsive, Section 3 constitutes specialized services including Economic Planning & Statistics, Engineering, Agriculture, Judicial, Foreign Affairs, Administration, Audit, Forestry, Miscellaneous, and Education.

- Gazetted Ranks: Special Class (Chief Secretary / Secretary), First Class (Joint Secretary), Second Class (Under Secretary), and Third Class (Section Officer).
- Non-Gazetted Ranks: First Class (Nayab Subba), Second Class (Kharidar), Third Class, Fourth Class, and Classless support posts.

CHAPTER 3 · RECRUITMENT & INCLUSION

Merit-Based Open Competition and Inclusive Quotas

Appointments to permanent civil service posts require recommendation from the Public Service Commission. Under Section 7(7), 45 percent of open-competition seats are reserved for inclusive representation (treated as 100%):

- Women: 33% · Adibasi/Janajati: 27% · Madheshi: 22% · Dalit: 9% · Persons with Disabilities: 5% · Backward Regions: 4%.

CHAPTER 7 · CODE OF CONDUCT

Professional Integrity, Neutrality, and Discipline

Civil employees must maintain punctuality, political neutrality, impartiality in service delivery, confidentiality of official records, and declaration of property, subject to departmental remedies and Administrative Court appeal.