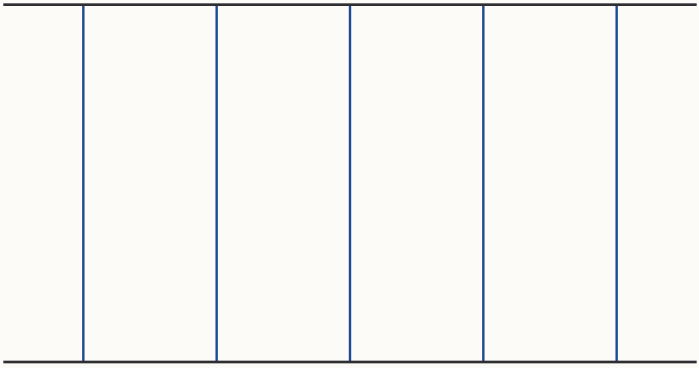
Accountability, Citizen Charters, Public Hearings, and Service Standards



Administrative Law Reference Series

Public Service Statute Digest · 3 Pages

CHAPTERS 1–2 · FOUNDATIONAL BASES

Rule of Law, Accountability, and Inclusion

Section 6 mandates that administrative functions uphold rule of law, corruption-free integrity, decentralization, financial discipline, impartiality, citizen participation, and equitable access.

CHAPTER 4 · CITIZEN-CENTRIC MECHANISMS

Citizen Charters, Mobile Services, and Public Audits

- Citizen Charter (Section 25): Every public office must visibly display required documents, exact fees, responsible officials, and maximum service time—with compensation provisions for unjustified delay.
- Public Hearing (Section 30): Chief officials must conduct periodic open hearings with service recipients and civil society.
- Grievance Box & Nodal Officer (Section 31): Mandatory complaint handling and transparent decision logs specifying clear statutory reasons.
